Antonio Gurulé, Indian Godchild (died 17 Nov 1800 at more than 80 years old) and Teresa Salazar (also Indian, died 4 Nov 1818 at Tome) (residents of Los Genizaros of Belen) 🕮 LoPopolo, Pioneers

Moises Gonzales → found a record for Antonio Gurule and Teresa Salazar. The record is a petition for a land grant near Sandia Pueblo in the 1750, along with 30 other genizaro families; the petition was denied by Governor Tomas Velez Gachupin. Interesting enough, Governor Gachupin does grant the genizaro families a grant of land at Belen and they establish the plaza de los Genizaros de Belen. Of the families on the petition for land, Antonio Gurule and Theresa are the first family listed.
