GURULE FAMILY 13
JOSE GURULE AND MARIA GERTRUDIS GARCIA
 By Patricia Sanchez Rau

One of the things that has puzzled me with the Gurule families is how there are so many people who just “dead end”, especially in the 1750's and later. The lack of records becomes frustrating to anyone who is trying to find answers to those “illusiv e ancestors.”

While working on one of the Gurule descendants of this family, I asked Angela if she had ever figured out where Jose Gurule might fit it in. She said she had not been able to ascertain any further information but gave me permission to “take a second look.”

Marriage - There is no marriage record in the Albuquerque Marriages book (records for San Felipe de Neri Church), although the couple did have a marriage investigation. In NMRoots Ltd. Jose is listed as 23 years old, mestizo, s/ unknown parents. I have found several instances of children of unknown parents where later records show more information, indicating that they knew who at least one of the parents was, but just chose not to give that information to the priest, perhaps because they might need a dispensation or because it might be an embarrassment to one of the parents.

Children – Only two baptism records offer clues:

1. Ana Maria Gurule, born 4 Jan 1774. Padrinos were Tadeo Garcia and Lucia Gurule (known daughter of Antonio Gurule and Antonia Quintana).
2. Joseph Miguel de San Juan Gurulé, baptized 8 Jul 1771. Padrinos were Pablo Garcia and Maria Rosalia Garcia (these are children of Tadeo Garcia and Lucia Gurulé, and grandchildren of Antonio Gurulé).

Padrinos – Jose Gurule was a padrino on 30 Aug 1766 (before he was married) with Maria de la Luz Gurule the baptism of Maria Agustina de Jesus Gurulé (a child of unknown parents). Maria de la Luz Gurule is daughter of Antonio Gurule and Antonia Quintana. Acting as a padrino, with someone when they are still single, indicates a close relationship.

Naming Patterns – People used to name a child for a deceased sibling or a close relative.

Jose and Gertrudis name a son Juan Ygnacio – the name of a possible sibling in the house of Antonio Gurule – Servant Bernardina. Jose and Gertrudis name a daughter Maria Lucia (named after Lucia Gurule)

Census – The 1750 Census at Albuquerque offers the best clue into the household of Antonio Gurule. Antonio Gurule, 45 Spanish, Antonia Quintana 45, Spanish, Juan Antonio 17, Fabiana 16, Seraphin 11, Elena 9, Manuela 4; servant Rosa, 40 Indian, Juan 18, Juan 12, Antonio 8, Matias 6, Tomas 4, Servant Bernardina 30 Indian, Maria Antonia 16, Ygnacio 11, Jose 9, Josefa 6, Maria 3

Conclusion: I believe that Jose Gurule may be the child Jose age 11, listed in the Antonio Gurule household, the son of Bernardina. The age difference of 3-5 years is not uncommon in records found in New Mexico.

DNA - A DNA test from a male Gurule descendant from this family might reveal more information.
